Acts 10:34,37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Mark 16: 1-8

When the Sabbath was over, Mary of Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices with which to go and anoint him. Very early in the morning on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb just as the sun was rising, they had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?"

when they looked, they could see that the stone, which was very big, had already been rolled back. On entering the tomb, they saw a young man in white, seated on the right-hand side, they were struck with amazement.

And what he said to them "There is no need for alarm. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See. Here is the place where they laid him.

You must go now and tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going before you to Galilee, it is there you will see him, just as he told you.'"
