St. Catherine of Siena's Feast day is celebrated this Friday. Catherine was born in 1347 in Italy. She became a third order Dominican, learned to read and write, and was known for her service to the poor and her involvement in politics. She worked for the unity of the Church. She died at the age of 33 and was later proclaimed a Doctor of the Church. Her best known spiritual writing is The Dialogue.

“Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire.”
