SAINT DAYS THIS WEEK ~ We celebrate various Saints this week including St Monica, this Friday and her son, St Augustine on Saturday. Augustine was born in Africa in 354 of a Berber family. He was brought up a Christian but left the Church early and spent a great deal of time seriously seeking the truth, first in the Manichaeian heresy and then in Neoplatonism, until at length, through the prayers of his mother and the teaching of St Ambrose of Milan, he was converted back to Christianity and baptized in 387, shortly before his mother's death.

Augustine had a brilliant legal and academic career, but after his conversion he returned home to Africa and led an ascetic life. He was elected Bishop of Hippo and spent 34 years looking after his flock. He wrote an enormous amount and left a permanent mark on both philosophy and theology. His Confessions, as dazzling in style as they are deep in content, are a landmark of world literature. He was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Boniface VIII in 1308.

I AM AWAY THIS COMING WEEK ~ Perched on the side of a mountain in Scotland. Thanks to all who will be looking after the Parish in my absence, especially our retired Clergy who will continue to celebrate daily Masses. We are certainly blessed to have them. God Bless ~ Fr Paul
